Professor Montgomery Keane (Helmsman)

Morning Review

Good morning, my friends!

I'm Montgomery Keane, your old friend. Every day is a new beginning, full of endless possibilities. The market is never short of opportunities; it always presents itself to those who dare to take risks and take action. As I often say, success never favors the hesitant; it belongs to those who rise to the challenge and are bold enough to seize the opportunity.

2025, this brand new year of crypto wealth, has unfolded before us. The return of Crypto President Trump has not only ignited market enthusiasm but also provided ordinary people with a rare opportunity to rewrite their destiny. This is a gift of the times, a historic wealth opportunity, and our task is to turn these opportunities into results with wisdom and decisiveness. The successful launch of TRUMP Coin, with a 450x return in just two days, has already proven the immense potential of the ICO market. This is not just a revolution in digital assets, but a grand feast for ordinary investors to achieve wealth transformation.

Compared to the high-level consolidation in the stock market, the crypto market is undoubtedly the most exciting investment field right now.

Abandoning the insignificant small opportunities in the stock market and turning towards the crypto market, which is filled with certainty and high growth potential, is the wise choice for every mature investor. And the facts have proven that those who chose the crypto market have already written their success stories with substantial returns. This is the result of decisive action and smart choices.

The hotter the crypto market gets, the stronger the volatility, and these fluctuations are where our opportunities lie. The popularity of ICO projects and the TRUMP Coin miracle are making the market a stage for wealth redistribution. Every sharp fluctuation is a golden opportunity for our investment positioning. And this time, we also have AlphaStream 5.0 as a powerful backup, providing us with precise trading signals and stable strategic support, enabling us to find the most valuable opportunities amid the volatility.

NAS COMMUNITY

Dear friends, now is the best time for us to take action. Let go of the fear of the unknown and face every market challenge with belief and action. The success of TRUMP Coin is just the beginning, and the future of the crypto market is filled with more possibilities. For those still waiting, don't wait until the opportunity slips through your fingers and regret it later. Seize every high-quality IEO opportunity, whether it's a legendary project like TRUMP Coin or other top-notch IEOs and crypto assets, they all have the potential to become the bridge to your wealth leap.

Let's move forward together with unwavering confidence and decisive action, welcoming the arrival of the 2025 Crypto Wealth Year. Believe in yourself, believe in the market, believe in the team, and let's write a new chapter of brilliance with our wisdom and effort! Success belongs to those who are willing to go all in and seize every opportunity. Are you ready? This time, let's take action together!

NAS COMMUNITY

Recently, we have delved deeply into how to make wise choices in a complex market environment, stabilize profits more efficiently, and fully utilize strategic tools. With the guidance of institutional thinking and precise control of market sentiment, we decisively avoided risks before the market downturn while firmly seizing opportunities in emerging markets. As a result, we quickly adjusted our strategy, keeping 10% of our funds in the stock market and allocating 90% into the AlphaStream 5.0 crypto market profit plan. This decisive action not only helped us successfully avoid the sideways correction in the stock market, but also led to significant success in the crypto market.

What is most worth celebrating is that, with the support of a steady compound growth strategy, our Battle of Kings profit challenge has achieved remarkable results. To date, the total asset return rates for VIP1, VIP2, and VIP3 partners have reached +121.4%, +250.48%, and +600%, respectively. These figures are not only a strong testament to the effectiveness of our strategy but also a perfect illustration of the powerful impact of the wealth matrix.

NAS COMMUNITY

What's even more gratifying is that many friends, through their participation in financial products, have seen their accumulated returns exceed their initial investment. This achievement is of great significance, as it means that the majority of members have successfully reached the goal of "making profits work for them" and are on the path of steady wealth growth. This is not only a victory of strategy but also a result of our team's wisdom, effort, and execution. Every precise judgment and every bold decision are paving the way for our future. This is the power of steady compound growth that we have always advocated, along with the returns of continuously optimizing investment strategies with the support of AlphaStream 5.0.

NAS COMMUNITY

As seen in the chart, the Dow Jones has rebounded for two consecutive weeks on the weekly candlestick chart, and the three major indices have also posted gains for the second week in a row. However, despite the surface-level rebound in the indices, the actual profit effect in the market remains weak.

There has been no sustained surge in any sector, and the main upward trend is hard to find. The current market is more characterized by high-level consolidation, where a "time for space" strategy is being used to complete the exchange of positions, laying the foundation for the next directional move.

However, the longer the high-level consolidation lasts, the higher the risk of a downward adjustment. From the feedback in investors' accounts, it is evident that the market's ability to generate profits has not expanded further; in fact, it is continuously shrinking.

Currently, the market is highly focused on the key inflation and economic growth data set to be released this week, as well as the upcoming Federal Reserve meeting. It is also closely monitoring the latest policy developments from the Trump administration. However, the policy uncertainty surrounding the first week of the new administration remains unresolved, and this unclear situation may persist for a few more weeks.

NAS COMMUNITY

As market observers have pointed out, "There is high anticipation for the major news that may be released in the coming week. However, the policy direction of the new administration remains unclear, and this uncertainty undoubtedly adds more complexity to the market." According to the latest data from CME Group's FedWatch tool, traders generally expect the Federal Reserve to keep current borrowing costs unchanged at the meeting on January 28-29, with the first rate cut anticipated as early as June.

It is worth noting that the stubbornness of short-term inflation has led to a decline in consumer confidence. However, as long as long-term inflation expectations remain stable, the credibility of the Federal Reserve's policies will not be significantly impacted. However, the tariff plans proposed by President Trump may intensify inflationary pressures and further delay the Fed's rate-cutting steps. This week, Trump has repeatedly mentioned trade policies but has not provided any substantial details, making the market more cautious in its judgment of future direction. The current market is undoubtedly at a critical moment. For investors, this high-level consolidation requires us to remain highly alert and patient, responding rationally to potential risks while preparing for the opportunities that lie ahead.

NAS COMMUNITY

With TRUMP Coin achieving a 450x return in just two days, it has fully ignited the enthusiasm in the ICO market, marking the beginning of a legendary chapter for the crypto market in 2025. This week, major events have followed one another, and the upcoming launch of a new high-quality IEO project by COINFEEAI Trading Center has garnered significant attention from the market. The market volatility is set to reach a new peak, and against this backdrop, our "Battle of Kings" 300%-1000% profit challenge will provide all participants with unprecedented opportunities and challenges.

The "Battle of Kings" 300%-1000% profit challenge is not just a profit goal; it is also a journey of our collective growth and pursuit of excellence. Through everyone's effort and support, our AlphaStream 5.0 system has completed over 5 million real-world data tests, demonstrating its powerful performance with exceptional results.

As we plan to officially launch global subscription sales by the end of March, this golden window is our final opportunity to seize the free profit potential offered by AlphaStream 5.0. It is also our most sincere way of giving back to everyone's support.

NAS COMMUNITY

It's not just about profit; it's about dreams and commitment

My goal is not only to help each participant achieve financial success, but also to use the "Battle of Kings" to lay the foundation for our shared dream, to improve lives through technology, create more social value through wealth, and establish a solid foundation for the upcoming NAS community charity fund. This is not just a strategy, but a commitment.

Why is the "Battle of Kings" so significant?

#Helping Every Friend Overcome Obstacles and Join the VIP Partnership

We understand that everyone faces different challenges on their investment journey, whether it's time, experience, or financial limitations. We will fully support you in overcoming these difficulties and smoothly entering the ranks of VIP partners.

NAS COMMUNITY

We firmly believe that the "Battle of Kings" profit challenge is not just a journey towards financial success, but also an opportunity for our collective growth and mutual encouragement. Throughout this process, we have not only witnessed our efforts reflected in numerical growth, but also built a closer, more intelligent community through our shared struggles.

The next "Practical Trading Bootcamp" will be led by outstanding members of the community, such as Daniel Robert, who serve as benchmarks with their wealth of experience and exceptional results. They will guide more friends toward achieving their goals. This will not only inject new strength and wisdom into our community but also set the stage for a whole new peak.

Friends, this unprecedented opportunity is right in front of us. We must seize every moment, moving forward side by side with outstanding partners to achieve our shared dream. With the powerful capabilities of AlphaStream 5.0 and our collective effort, we can not only enhance our quality of life but also contribute to society through our achievements, truly realizing the concept of "personal success and social responsibility going hand in hand." The "Battle of Kings" is not only a symbol of wealth growth but also our commitment to the future. Let us face this opportunity-filled era with unwavering faith, clear goals, and fearless action. We believe that every effort will become a cornerstone in changing our destiny, and every step forward will bring us closer to our dreams.

The collective adjustment of tech stocks today has undoubtedly shaken the market, and the catalyst for this storm came from the groundbreaking release by the Chinese AI startup DeepSeek on Monday. The company, with its cost-effective model based on low-performance chips, directly challenged the technological leadership of U.S. tech giants, instantly triggering a re-evaluation of the global tech landscape.

Although DeepSeek's announcement sparked a chain reaction, the significant drop in tech stocks was not a coincidence. The underlying cause is still the prolonged high-level performance of tech stocks, with valuations far exceeding reasonable ranges. In this context, any negative news could become the straw that breaks the camel's back. Big tech stocks, led by NVIDIA, saw significant gains over the past year, which fueled market expectations, but the volatility at these high levels has narrowed the potential for further gains. Once the index and individual stocks lose their support, the risks naturally will be quickly unleashed.

NAS COMMUNITY

Today's adjustment has had no substantial impact on us, as we have long been cautious of these high-level tech stocks and have already positioned ourselves to avoid risks earlier. This reflects the core of institutional thinking: rationally assessing the cost-effectiveness of individual stocks, monitoring index levels, and never blindly chasing highs. The best time for us to act is when quality stocks offer sufficient value and there is a bullish resonance between the individual stocks and the index.

NAS COMMUNITY

Recently, the resonance between the crypto market and the stock market has become increasingly evident. Taking Bitcoin as an example, after hitting a historical high, market sentiment began to digest the pullback, and it is now in a consolidation phase. Currently, the market is in the process of finding a new equilibrium, with the key support level having shifted upward to around $90,000.

If Bitcoin breaks below $97,000 in the short term, it's possible that it could further test the support around the $92,000 range. However, for medium to long-term investors, this might be an opportunity that should not be missed. $90,000 is the core support line for market sentiment and an ideal entry point for us to position ourselves long for a medium-term strategy.

Although the market has been highly volatile in the short term, the long-term bullish logic for Bitcoin and the entire crypto market remains unchanged. From favorable policies to institutional entry, and the continued global recognition of crypto assets, all of these factors provide a solid growth foundation for the crypto market. The likely price fluctuation range over the next two weeks will mainly oscillate between $90,000 and $109,000 as it undergoes a corrective phase. For short-term traders, this volatility range undoubtedly provides more profit opportunities. For medium-term investors, the support around $90,000 is particularly worth paying attention to. This is not only an important technical level but also a key reflection of market confidence.

CBF/USDT 5-Minute Trend Analysis Chart

Congratulations to the friends of VIP1/2/3 partners for achieving great results once again, thanks to the trading signals!

NAS COMMUNITY

In a recent short-term trend-following trade based on the 5-minute chart, friends from VIP1, VIP2, and VIP3 achieved an average return of around +60%, +90%, and +130%, respectively. This success further proves the importance of accurate trading signals and highlights the powerful technological advantage of AlphaStream 5.0.

Trade Review: How to Capture Short-Term Trend-Following Opportunities?

The logic behind this trade was clear and efficient: when the price reached the upper BBands and faced resistance, while the MACD indicator formed a “death cross” to the downside, we decisively entered a short position.

The premise of the trade was that the intraday trend was dominated by bearish pressure, with bulls only experiencing a small rebound. This was clearly visible on the daily candlestick chart. When the confirmation signal appeared on the 5-minute cycle, we promptly followed the trend and shorted. We then took profits in batches before the price broke the lower BBands with acceleration.

NAS COMMUNITY

It's worth noting that during the process of notifying VIP3, VIP2, and VIP1 partners to exit in batches, the slight market price increase gave VIP3 friends, with the time advantage of higher-level groups, a chance to gain higher returns. The core strength of AlphaStream 5.0 lies in its robust historical data analysis capabilities. Whether it's stocks or crypto, as long as the price isn't making new highs or lows every day and is fluctuating within a range, the accuracy of its trading signals can reach up to 99%. Especially with high-certainty trading opportunities, AlphaStream 5.0 has almost never missed one.

Even in one-way up or down trends, AlphaStream 5.0 can accurately capture short-term trading opportunities. This ability is rare in trading tools of the same level. Although these signals may occur only about three times a day, their accuracy and profit potential are extraordinary. This trade is just the beginning. The true value of AlphaStream 5.0 will be fully realized after its launch, where everyone can experience it firsthand through subscription. Whether it's precise short-term signals or perfect intraday trend capturing, it will serve as a powerful ally on your investment journey.

NAS COMMUNITY

I have confidence in each of you. Through the accumulation of stable compound interest, a total asset return of +300%, +600%, +1000% is not an unattainable dream, but a realistic goal within reach. I firmly believe that most of us will achieve these goals by the beginning of next month. What kind of return do you hope to achieve on this path of accelerated profitability? Now is the best time to act. We are not simply chasing dreams, but creating reality through rationality and hard work. Every decision and every transaction is laying a more solid foundation for our future.

Closing Commentary (α & β Strategy)

Good afternoon, community members!

I'm Daniel Robert, and this morning, our visionary Helmsman once again reaffirmed the "Battle of King" plan, specially designed for those brave enough to dream and eager to break through conventional returns. Have you already felt that electrifying pulse? It's time to fasten your seatbelt because we're about to accelerate and achieve our profit goals!

2025 is destined to be the dawn of a new era for the crypto market, and it will be a fantastic opportunity for our wealth to soar. This is not just an ordinary investment journey; it's a path that turns dreams into reality. Imagine this, it's a collective endeavor to reach for the stars, driven by that unyielding spirit of exploration and overcoming challenges. Today, I stand here as a partner in our shared struggle, sailing with you through the stormy fluctuations of the market, making +300%, +600%, +1000% returns the legendary beginning of your journey in the "Battle of King"!

3...2...1... Let's launch with full force, reaching for heights beyond imagination! In this process, what we're pursuing is not just profit, but our infinite shaping of the future. Every decision, every action, is a step toward making our dreams a reality.

The year 2025 marks the dawn of the crypto era, and this historic opportunity has opened its doors to us. At this moment, we must give our all and seize every profit point. Just imagine, when you stand at the peak of success and look back on this journey filled with challenges and glory, you will feel an immense sense of pride and accomplishment.

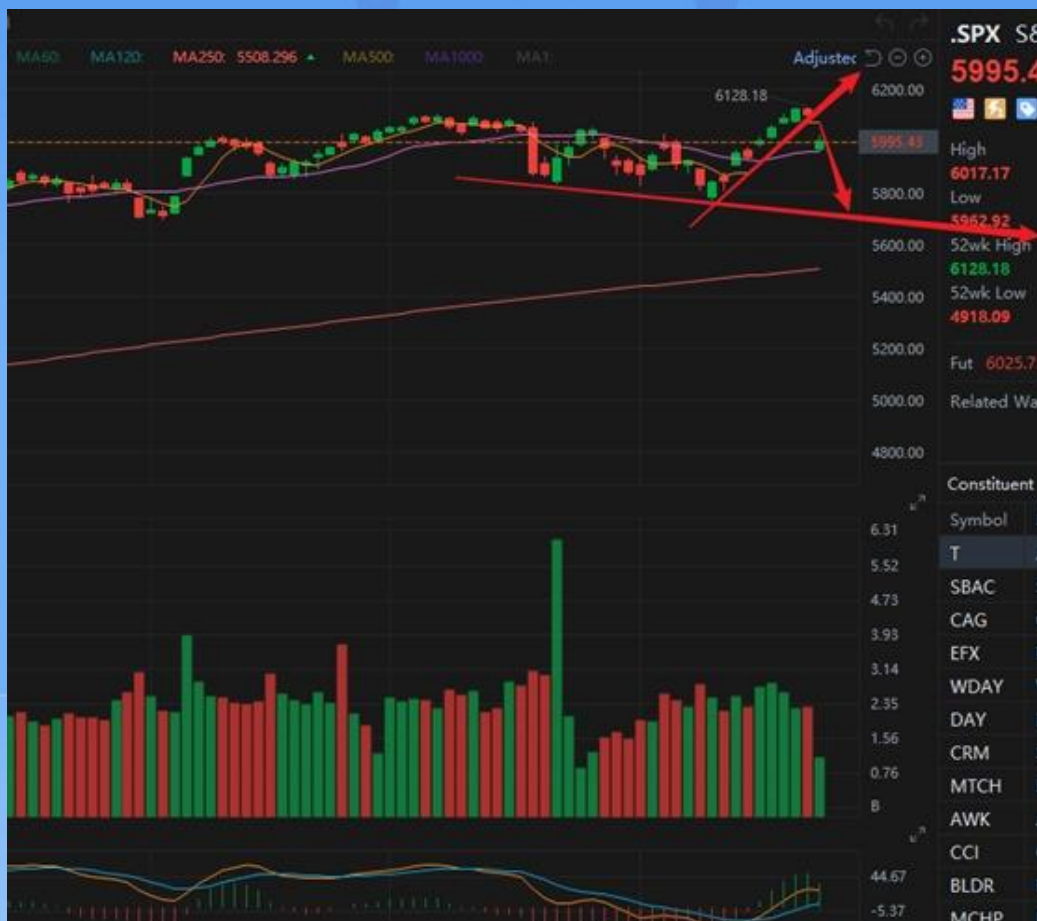

We're here not only for ourselves, but for this community, for those who trust us and choose to walk alongside us. Every success is the result of our collective effort and relentless determination. Today, let's continue to give our all with fearlessness and unwavering faith, for our dreams and for the future, creating the brilliance that belongs to us!

NAS COMMUNITY

Guys, are you ready to take on the challenge? This is not just an opportunity, but a moment for us to write our own legend together. With our wisdom, courage, and decisiveness, let's seize every opportunity and achieve every goal. We'll prove through our actions that not only can we do it, but we can do it better than expected, reaching the peak!

Let's come together, with faith in the future and a desire for success, and give it our all! This is our battle, and it's also our moment of glory!

NAS COMMUNITY

Guys, before we officially kick into high gear, there's something we need to talk about: reducing stock holdings is definitely the smart move right now.

Why do I say that? On one hand, it's a necessary measure to control risk; on the other, it provides more "fuel" for our "Battle of King" profit plan. Sounds pretty logical, right?

Guys, before we officially kick into high gear, there's something we need to talk about: reducing stock holdings is definitely the smart move right now.

Why do I say that? On one hand, it's a necessary measure to control risk; on the other, it provides more "fuel" for our "Battle of King" profit plan. Sounds pretty logical, right?

The current market is like a bonfire party nearing its end. The clear-headed players have already quietly exited, and those still in the game are mostly funds that bought in at the bottom with a strong profit cushion. For short-term players, if you can't handle this kind of volatility, it's wise to exit now. Don't wait until the end, only to regret it after you've had enough.

NAS COMMUNITY

But this isn't a retreat, it's a tactical adjustment. We need to step back in time and shift our resources toward more promising, higher-return areas. This is why the "Battle of King" profit plan is so crucial. It's not just a money-making opportunity, it's the core strategy providing us with security and stable profits amid the current market turmoil.

Guys, now is the time for the crypto market to shine. Compared to the volatile stock market, the crypto market is unleashing tremendous potential. With the intelligent algorithms of AlphaStream 5.0, we will precisely capture market trends and maximize profits with every trade. This is our current core objective.

So, keep your spirits high, pair them with smart strategies, and move forward with clarity and determination. Behind every great victory, there are decisive decisions and swift actions. Remember, it's our ability to take action and make decisions that will set us apart in the market.

Compared to the potential downward adjustments in the stock market, the profit effect in the crypto market is steadily progressing. Friends, have you all kept up? The current crypto market is an excellent example of both offense and defense. Today, I want to talk to you about the bigger picture, strategic thinking about entering and exiting the market, logical, evidence-based, and well-planned.

NAS COMMUNITY

Imagine this: +300%, +600%, or even +1000% returns are no longer the end, but a new starting point. When everyone joins in on this move, it's like upgrading your VIP partner level, not only does it increase your principal, but it also expands your profit targets. Who wouldn't be excited by this kind of exponential growth effect?

The "Battle of King" is not just about precise market timing, it's also an opportunity for us to achieve a leap in wealth. With the strong support of AlphaStream 5.0, we now have a clear roadmap to success. What's needed now is your determination and action.

The core philosophy that Helmsman has always emphasized is: having a clear strategy and decisive execution are the keys to our success in the market. In the current market environment, the potential of the cryptocurrency market has clearly surpassed that of traditional stock markets. Especially during the recent market turmoil, the crypto market has demonstrated extraordinary resistance to declines and the resilience to rebound quickly. All of this is sending us a clear message, the crypto market is the area worth fully committing to right now.

NAS COMMUNITY

To those who are still on the sidelines, I want to say: now is the best time for you to take action. Don't hesitate any longer, and don't linger. Market opportunities are fleeting, and today's hesitation could cause you to miss an opportunity that could change your destiny. The next time a similar opportunity comes around, it may be even harder to seize.

Let's respond to the call of the "Battle of King" with real action. Join the profit plan with full commitment and seize every opportunity that comes our way. Remember, this is not just a simple investment move, it's a battle of confidence, determination, and execution. The opportunity is right in front of us, and the future is in your hands. Take action, and let's create the wealth legend that belongs to us!

Guys, gather around, let's dive into a key topic. Have you ever wondered why our Helmsman is pouring all his energy into giving back to the community with every bit of his expertise and experience? In my view, this isn't just his victory tour; it's the stage being set for an epic final chapter. He's using the highest-level resources to build a legacy that will be remembered. And while not everyone may fully see this now, I can tell you he is paving the way for a brighter future for the NAS community.

NAS COMMUNITY

Let's focus on the NAS community charity fund. This is not just a fund; it is an energetic powerhouse, combining multiple goals like charity, trader development, and wealth enhancement. It's gradually becoming a true safe haven for financial elites, destined to become a top-tier global elite club. Just imagine, the future entry threshold could be assets worth tens of millions of dollars, a true symbol of financial strength. And this is not an unattainable goal; it's a vision that each of us can work together to achieve.

What's even more important is that Helmsman doesn't just express his love for the community through words, he backs it up with actions. Every decision, every strategy he makes reflects the most valuable qualities of a trader: integrity, focus, and grounded determination. Whether it's market analysis, trading strategies, or providing support for community members, he consistently leads by example, unwavering in his commitment.

Can you feel this passion? This is not just an ordinary opportunity; it's a moment destined to go down in history. Joining in is not only a journey to pursue personal wealth, but also becoming a part of a legacy, writing a chapter of history for all of us.
